

It's All in a Day's Work !

A Practical Approach to Everyday Pathology

Day 1: Friday, 28th of April 2017

8:45-9:15a.m.	Registration
9:15-9:30a.m.	A word from the organisers and a thank you to the sponsors and our guest speaker
9:30-10:30a.m.	Diagnosis, biology and meaning of melanocytic dysplasia.	Salvador J. Diaz-Cano
10:30-11:30a.m.	The spectrum of melanocytic lesions: From examples to biologically relevant conditions.	Salvador J. Diaz-Cano
11:30-11:45a.m.	Questions and answers
11:45-1:00p.m.	Lunch and prayers
1:00-2:00p.m.	Prostate cancer, diagnosis and potential pitfalls.	Fatima Al-Hashimi
2:00-2:15	Coffee and Tea break
2:15-3:15p.m.	Patterns and mechanisms of inflammatory skin conditions: The pathologist's survival kit.	Salvador J. Diaz-Cano
3:15-4:15p.m.	Inflammatory dermatopathology in general medicine: Case review.	Salvador J. Diaz-Cano
4:15-4:30p.m.	Questions and answers
End of Day 1

It's All in a Day's Work !

A Practical Approach to Everyday Pathology

Day 2: Saturday, 29th of April 2017

9:00-10:00a.m.	Dysplasia and epithelial polyps in gastrointestinal tract.	Salvador J. Diaz-Cano
10:00-11:00a.m.	What looks like IBD is not always IBD: From cases to processes.	Salvador J. Diaz-Cano
11:00-11:15a.m.	Questions and answers
11:15-11:30	Coffee and Tea break
11:30-12:00p.m.	Diagnostic approach to cystic neoplasms of the kidney.	Fatima Al-Hashimi
12:00-1:15p.m.	Lunch and prayers
1:15-2:15p.m.	WHO 2016 update of lymphoma classification.	Eman Aljufairi
2:15-3:15p.m.	Adrenal pathology: Elements of biologic models and practical applications.	Salvador J. Diaz-Cano
3:15-3:30p.m.	Questions and answers
End of Day 2		